Community-Based Programs
Program Name	Moral Reconation Therapy (MRT)
Brief Description	Evidence-based program that encourages clients to develop prosocial thoughts and behaviors Based on Curriculum-Based Motivation Group by Anne Fields of Portland, OR (2004)
Admission & Selection Criteria	Offenders sentenced to 6 months or greater High and/or medium risk on the LSI-R Potential candidates are identified through monthly review of the sentenced populations' risk factors Only offered to male clients Female clients complete Phase II AMCP in gender-specific group, as MRT not currently offered to female clients
Program Length, Cycle & Dosage	Groups typically meet once per week for 13 weeks MRT consists of 13 chapters and homework assignments Clients may not miss more than two MRT sessions; otherwise, they will be directed to start over with AMCP Orientation and Phase I Length of program varies depending on client participation, motivation, and progress Minimum total dosage = 19.5 hours class time; estimated at 13 groups (13 assignments) of 1.5 hours each
Program Capacity	Class size is 12 persons Only one group offered at a time Open group Members start and finish individually
Criminogenic Needs Addressed	Primary = Antisocial personality/Attitudes Secondary = Alcohol/Drug
CPC (or other) Rating	This program has not been evaluated

Community-Based Programs
Program Name	Ready to Work (RTW)
Brief Description	RTW is an ongoing job development program created to assist probation clients in developing the tools necessary to be successful in finding employment.
	RTW includes a comprehensive intake interview, career identification, and goal setting; 40 hours of unpaid practical work experience; career development workshops; and educational opportunities.
Admission & Selection Criteria	Sentenced, unemployed offenders High and/or medium risk on the LSI-R
	Potential candidates are identified through monthly review of the sentenced populations' risk factors and/or court/PO referral as sanction/intervention
Program Length,	Four-tier system:
Cycle & Dosage	- Tier I (30 days): daily reporting
	 Tier II (11 classes): work groups through job source Tier III (until employment gained): independent (report once weekly)
	- Tier IV (90 days): job success
	In each tier, clients participate in the program five days per week, eight hours per day, unless otherwise directed.
Program Capacity	20 persons maximum for Tier I, 10 persons for Tier II, and 10 persons for Tier III
	Daily reporting and/or 1–2 employment classes/appointments per week, depending on phase
	Total 40 persons at any one time, in all three phases combined
Criminogenic Needs	Primary = Education/Employment
Addressed	Secondary = Antisocial patterns
CPC (or other) Rating	This program has not been evaluated	